MINUTES
CINCINNATI ANNUAL CONFERENCE, AT
CINCINNATI, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 23, 1854.

BISHOP SCOTT, PRESIDENT.
JOHN T. MITCHELL, SECRETARY.

Summary.

THE Cincinnati conference held its third annual session in the Ninth-street church, Cincinnati, September 27, 1854.

At 9 o'clock, A. M., Bishop Scott called the conference to order, and conducted the religious services, reading the holy Scriptures, singing, and prayer.

The Secretary of the last conference, at the request of the Bishop, called the roll. Of 157 members, only 95 were present the first morning of conference. Some were detained by affliction, and one—Rev. C. G. Meredith—had died during the year. Subsequently nearly all the members of conference were in attendance.

John T. Mitchell was elected Secretary, James F. Chalfant, Assistant, and Wm. P. Strickland, Official Reporter. Several reporters for the daily papers of the city were present during the session, and were invited to seats within the bar.

The conference met daily at 8 o'clock, A. M., and adjourned at 12, M.

The following committees were appointed:

The President was requested to appoint, at some time during the session, all the Committees of Examination for next year.

Ordered, that Stevens's Church Polity, Peck on Rule of Faith, Hibbard on Baptism, and Tytler's Universal History be studied by the classes the next year.

Brother E. G. Nicholson was recognized as a member of this conference, by transfer from the Western Virginia conference.

The Reports of the Book Committees, and the Exhibits of the Book Concerns, east and west, were read, from which that important interest of the Church is shown to be in a highly-prosperous condition.

In addition to the usual Minute business and the reports of committees, herewith published, the following resolutions of general interest were adopted, on sundry days during the session:

LOCAL PREACHERS.

1. Resolved, That local preachers be hereafter required to be examined on the course of study prescribed for them before they be elected to orders by this conference.

2. Resolved, That the presiding elder of the district and the preacher in charge of the circuit or station, be a committee to examine local preachers, in each charge, on the course of study.

THE CONFERENCE COLLECTION.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this conference that it is the imperative duty of each preacher in charge of a circuit or station to take up a fifth collection, in obedience to the law of the Church.

CLAIMANTS ON CONFERENCE FUNDS.

WHEREAS, The General conference has granted to the annual conferences authority to discriminate who shall be claimants on the funds of said conference, and the amount each claimant shall receive from year to year; therefore,

Resolved, That this conference, hereafter, in the disposition of its funds, will act under the discriminating rule.

ESTIMATES FOR NEXT YEAR.

The conference Stewards were appointed a committee to estimate the amount needed the next year to meet the claims of the superannuated and distressed traveling preachers and their families, and the widows and orphan children of the conference, and to apportion the amount among the circuits and stations, and publish the same in the Western Christian Advocate.

VOTE OF THANKS.

Resolved, That the thanks of this conference be tendered to the families where we have been so hospitably entertained, to the pastors of those churches which were occupied by our preachers on the Sabbath, and to the Trustees of this church, in which the conference held its session.

CONFERENCE TRUNK.

Messrs. Moores & Butterfield, No. 89 Main-street, Cincinnati, through brother Fowble, presented to the conference a handsome trunk, worth some $25, for the use of the Secretary. Whereupon, it was unanimously Resolved, That the thanks of the conference be presented to Messrs. Moores & Butterfield for their handsome and valuable present.

ANNUAL MISSIONARY COLLECTION.

The month of May was agreed upon as the time when the annual missionary sermons shall be preached, and the public collections for missions taken within our bounds.

CONGRESS-STREET GERMAN CHURCH.

WHEREAS, The object of the agency for said Church, to which Rev. G. W. Walker was appointed last year, though successfully prosecuted, is not fully accomplished, and,

WHEREAS, The present condition of said agency is such as to demand the reappointment of brother Walker; therefore,

Resolved, That the Bishop be respectfully requested to appoint brother G. W. Walker to such a position as will enable him to consummate the object of said agency.

TRACT AND COLONIZATION AGENTS.

Resolved, That we will cordially receive and co-operate with the Agents of the Tract Cause and the Ohio State Colonization Society, whenever they may visit our respective charges.

CONFERENCE SERMON ON MISSIONS.

Brother C. Brooks was appointed to preach the annual sermon on missions, before the conference, in 1855; brother M. Dustin, alternate.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Brothers W. Rowe, H. Baker, Moody, Kemper, Brooks, Armstrong, Helwig, Wydenbach, and Gahn were appointed to confer with a committee of lay brethren on the financial affairs of the conference.

The session of the conference was protracted somewhat beyond the usual length, and was closed at one o'clock on Friday, October 6th. Much good feeling prevailed throughout, and the bonds of Christian union between brethren were knit more closely. Some most painful duties devolved on the conference; but these were met with a firm and yet tender spirit. Bishop Scott, who was on his first visit to the conference, in his presidency, preaching, and social intercourse, endeared himself to all. Doctors Durbin and J. T. Peck represented the missions and tract interests, with which they are charged, with addresses before the conference and the public in their usual felicitous style; and we were favored with visits from several beloved brethren from other conferences.

The next session is to be held at Urbana, Ohio, September 26, 1855.

MEMOIR OF REV. CHARLES G. MEREDITH.

Rev. C. G. MEREDITH, son of Samuel and Belinda Meredith, was born in Baltimore county, Maryland, May 5, 1820. He seems to have been remarkable from his childhood for his orderly behavior and sobriety of temper; and at the early age of about eleven years he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and soon after professed conversion at a camp meeting held on what was called Low's camp-ground, in the southern part of York county, Penn., and near the Maryland line. Young Meredith was of Methodist stock; his grandparents, as well as his parents, being members of the Church. The following extract from a letter, written by the Rev. Thomas Gorsuch, will convey a just idea of his early piety and promise to the Church: "After his conversion he was a model for all young Christians. He immediately, after joining the Church, commenced speaking in class, love-feast meetings, and praying in public. His praying and speaking often produced a powerful effect on those present, as I now most distinctly recollect. Such was the consistency of his walk, and the depth of his piety and devotion, in connection with his youth, that he became an object of remark among older Christians; and it was frequently predicted, when he was but a boy, that he would some day become a preacher of the Gospel." Brother Meredith was a self-educated man, was fond of books and of study, and applied himself closely in the acquisition of literary, scientific, and theological knowledge. He read his New Testament in Greek and Latin, was well versed in the English branches, and was one of the best theologians of his age in the conference. In the pulpit he was dignified, instructive, and highly practical. His sermons were carefully prepared, and generally adapted to the occasion; and, bating a slight defect in distinctness of enunciation, were well delivered. As an administrator of Discipline, he was judicious and safe, being mild but firm. As a pastor he had but few superiors—faithful in his work, and happy in his intercourse with his people and with the community. Not only his late charge, but the Church, must feel his loss.

Brother Meredith was received on trial in what was then the Ohio conference in the autumn of 1846, and appointed to Wilmington circuit, and, the year following, to Monroe circuit, at the close of which he was ordained deacon, and received into full connection with the conference. In 1849 he traveled the Maysville circuit, in Kentucky; and was this year, on the 4th of December, united in marriage to Miss Sarah E. Simmons, daughter of Rev. W. Simmons, of the Cincinnati conference. In 1850 he was ordained elder, and appointed to Augusta circuit, Kentucky. His next field was West White Oak, 1851; Batavia, 1852 and 1853; Lebanon station, 1854, where he closed his life and labors together, July 16, 1854.

His last sickness was sudden, and his death unexpected to himself and to his friends, till a few hours before it occurred. Few, if any, had fairer promise of long life than he; yet the messenger came, and death took him away—took him away with a brief warning. But as in life, so also in death, he evinced the Christian's spirit and the Christian's hope. The last Sabbath preceding the one on which he died was spent in Wilmington, in exchange with a ministerial brother. He preached three times on that day; and feeling somewhat indisposed, on next day returned home. He was not, however, considered seriously ill by his physician till Friday evening, when it was discovered that his brain was seriously affected, and that probably he could not live. The announcement of this fact to him, however, did not alarm him. It is true that most of the time, from that period till his death, he labored under the influence of delirium, yet he had occasional lucid moments. A minister of a sister denomination visiting him, remarked that in all human probability he must soon leave us, and asked him how he felt in view of such an event. He very calmly replied, "That he had attended to that matter before—that he was ready;" and invited the minister to unite with him in prayer. He also made similar replies and requests to other friends who visited him. Some time after this he called his two little sons, Eddy and Willie, and affectionately embraced them, as though conscious he would soon leave them. Some time after this he remarked, "It will soon be over;" and when his speech failed, and he could no longer give utterance to his thoughts and feelings, he looked as though he would tell his weeping wife and sympathizing charge, "All is well; I'm going home."

Thus sank quietly and peacefully to rest another of God's servants; but he died at his post—died with his armor on. God had more important work for him in a better world.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

REPORT ON COLONIZATION.

The Committee on Colonization beg leave to make the following report:

Your Committee, we have ascertained, were not desired, by its originators, to consider and promote the interests of the American Colonization Society directly, but to consider the propriety of co-operating with a colonization society for the state of Ohio, and devising the best means for the execution of its designs. This state society is yet to be organized; and it is proposed, through the agency of Mr. Christy, Agent of the American Colonization Society, to organize that society in co-operation with this conference during its present session. The great object of this society will be to check the extension of slavery, and contribute toward its extirpation by promoting civilization on the coast of Africa. This object the society proposes to effect by inducing and assisting the more intelligent free people of color in this country to emigrate to Africa, for the purpose of employing the less intelligent natives of that country in the cultivation of tropical products, thus destroying the slave-labor monopoly over this great source of gain.

This proposition your Committee regard with favor, and recommend a cordial co-operation in the movement for the following reasons:

1. The undying motive to perpetuate and extend slavery is gain. This vulcan power neutralizes the force of moral considerations. Slave labor is chiefly rendered profitable by the great demand of tropical products, in the cultivation of which slaves can be most successfully employed. Tropical products are supposed, at this time, to supply the basis of nearly three-fourths of the commerce of the Christian world. Slavery enjoys the monopoly of producing and receiving the profits of this vast commerce. We must deprive slavery of this vital stimulus. To create competition on the coast of Africa in the cultivation of these products, as the fruit of free labor, will contribute to this end. This is practicable. More than 640,000 acres in a climate adapted to tropical cultivation on the coast of Africa may be consecrated to free labor. This territory was recently purchased by benevolent gentlemen of this country, and given to the republic of Liberia, from which, thank God! slavery is forever excluded by its Constitution. This ground may be bought for a very small consideration per acre of the Government, and a hundred and sixty acres given to every family who will emigrate to that country; and it is the proposition of this society to procure the means that will enable them to hold out such inducements to the free people of color in this state.

2. Another very weighty consideration that should prompt us to destroy the monopoly of slavery in tropical cultivations, is, to prevent the permanent establishment of a huge system of slavery on the continent of Africa. Eight-tenths of the savage population of that continent have always been in a state of servitude. Since the suppression of the slave-trade, the despotic chiefs have employed the slaves, who they otherwise would have sold, in the cultivation of tropical products. This renders slaves valuable, and, of course, prompts the chiefs to extend and perpetuate the system of crushing bondage. We must break the chains of slavery by making slave labor unprofitable.

3. Another circumstance commending the proposition under consideration to our favorable notice, is, the effect it must have upon slavery in this country. It is to add strength, respectability, and importance to a republic whose Constitution frowns upon and prohibits slavery forever within its jurisdiction. Any thing that we can do for the promotion of this free nation must weaken the chains of their brethren in this country—an object dear to every Christian heart.

Your Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

1. Resolved, That we approve the proposition to organize a colonization society for the state of Ohio.

2. Resolved, That we will cordially co-operate in carrying out the designs of this society.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of an efficient man from our conference to act as agent of this organization, if such be organized, and the appointment be requested.

Respectfully submitted.

A. LOWREY,
WM. YOUNG,
L. D. HARLAN.

REPORT ON PEOPLE OF COLOR AMONG US.

The committee appointed at the Cincinnati conference of 1853, “to inquire and report to the next session of the conference what can best be done to promote the welfare of the people of color among us,” present the following:

Your Committee are fully aware that the subject referred to them for consideration and report is one of incalculable importance and of general interest. What can best be done to promote the welfare of the people of color among us? is indeed a great question. We give no countenance to any theory which goes to deprive the black man of his full share in our common humanity, but hail him as a man and a brother in accordance with that grand affirmation of the Bible, which must forever settle the unity of the human race, that God “hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth.” Hence, we cordially concede our obligation to do good to the colored race according to our ability and their necessity, as members of the wide-spread family of man. Here, then, is an extensive field open for benevolent enterprise, where a part of the large donations of the rich and the smaller contributions of those of less ability may advantageously mingle together; and where the patriot, the statesman, and the philanthropist of every description may unite in the accomplishment of a noble work of charity and labor of love.

Your Committee propose making an effort to collect and concentrate various influences and appliances, which may be successful in raising the colored people among us from their degradation, and restore them from their depressed and outcast condition to confidence and usefulness in the world. In this god like work of philanthropy we conceive the Church of Christ, in all her branches, loudly called upon to make the most direct, persevering, and efficient efforts possible to rescue this neglected portion of our population from ignorance and vice; and we doubt not if the various denominations of Protestant Churches will take the lead in this important work, that statesmen and legislators will be active co-laborers in this noble enterprise of mercy. School-houses are almost unknown among the colored people of our country, and they now seem left to educate themselves as best they may. We propose to call forth an influence that will secure to them at least a good common-school education, which will greatly improve their condition.

The Legislature of Ohio passed an act to provide for the re-organization, supervision, and maintenance of common schools, which, though imperfect, is an honor to our state. The eighth section of the school law provides for the enumeration of all the unmarried white and colored youth, noting them separately, between the ages of five and twenty-one years, resident within each sub-district, designating between male and female, and requires a return of a certified copy thereof to be made to the township clerk.

The thirty-first section of said law says: "The township boards of education in this state, in their respective townships, and the several other boards of education, and the trustees, visitors, and directors of schools, or other officers, having authority in the premises of each city, or incorporated village, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized and required to establish, within their respective jurisdictions, one or more separate schools for colored children, when the whole number, by enumeration, exceeds thirty, so as to afford them, as far as practicable, under all the circumstances, the advantages and privileges of a common school education; and all such schools, so established for colored children, shall be under the control and management of the board of education, or other school officers, who have in charge the educational interests of the other schools; but in case the average number of colored children in attendance shall be less than fifteen for any one month, it shall be the duty of said board of education, or other school officers, to discontinue said school, or schools, for any period not exceeding six months at any one time; and if the number of colored children shall be less than fifteen, the directors shall reserve the money raised on the number of said colored children; and the money so reserved, shall be appropriated for the education of such colored children, under the direction of the township board."

As it is common for the colored people to associate together, and settle in neighborhoods, it is probable in most places where there are any, that their unmarried youth and children from five to twenty-one years of age will reach thirty in the enumeration, and that the average attendance at school in the sub-district will not likely fall below fifteen; so that the school law of Ohio makes provision to secure to the colored youth of our state a common school education; and we appeal to all our citizens, and to the tax-payers in particular, to combine their influence to carry out the provisions of the law in this respect. This benevolent effort should be made under the pure and benign principle of love for mankind; but if this motive should fail to influence, the consideration should prevail that their elevation, by being thus educated, will be a greater advantage to the community than all the expense of their tuition, so that the tax-payer may realize a net pecuniary profit; and the same is true in relation to all other portions of our population who are illiterate and vicious. They are among us, and it will be to our own interest to promote their intelligence and virtue, and, by so far, remove their ignorance and vice by securing to them a common school education.

Your Committee further propose to call special attention to the necessity of furnishing this portion of our population with the means of religious instruction. This we deem essential to their elevation in the scale of being, as well as their moral improvement and final salvation. We are aware there are very few colored people immediately connected with us in Church fellowship; some associate with various Baptist Churches, but the most of them, who have united with any Christian people, belong to the African Methodist Episcopal Church, which was formed principally out of secessions from our Church in Philadelphia, Baltimore, and some other places, under the influence of several distinguished colored ministers, among whom was Rev. Richard Allen, who was ordained by Bishop Asbury in 1799. In 1816 the organization of the Church was completed, and Richard Allen was consecrated to the episcopal office. There has been a great increase in the membership of this Church, and they now have societies and congregations formed in nearly every free state in the Union, and many in Canada. They perfectly agree with us in doctrine, and in nearly all respects their Church government and discipline are the same. Many of them once belonged to our communion, and we are nearer to them than any other denomination. We may, therefore, hope to have access to their councils and congregations for consultation, and may mature the best plans for the moral culture and religious instruction of the colored people generally, which both Churches, with other influences added, may successfully carry out. Your Committee, therefore, recommend a more confidential fraternization and closer communion of our Church with the African Methodist Episcopal Church than has heretofore existed, that we may unite our wisdom in devising and our influence in executing the best means for the intellectual and moral improvement of the colored race. We might perhaps include some of their destitute neighborhoods in our domestic missions, or we might sustain with funds trustworthy colored preachers, to carry to such destitute settlements the Gospel of Christ; and labor for their salvation. We recommend that our ministers avail themselves of all opportunities which may be presented of preaching to them, and in every possible way encourage their ministry and membership to build up a holy people, who may exert great moral power over the colored race, and be the means of rescuing many of them from sin and ignorance in this life, and of securing their happy destiny in eternity. We only add that the colored people in our midst ought to be advised, and, if possible, influenced to organize Sunday schools wherever ten of their children can be collected together, and teachers procured; and, if need be, let white persons volunteer to become teachers, that their rising generation may be taught the fear of the Lord, and how to serve him while young, and be reared for God and heaven. Every effort which may be made to suppress evil in children, and plant in their tender hearts the seeds of grace, is certainly well directed, and cannot fail, with God's blessing, to be crowned with signal and lasting success. Let us labor to get the children saved! Colored people are in great danger of infidelity. The white infidel will use most skillfully many circumstances connected with their history to poison their minds, and influence them to reject the religion of the Bible. How cruel must he be to rob the black man of nearly all that comforts him in time, and which opens to his enraptured vision a blessed immortality, and the just rewards of eternity! Let us labor to guard the colored race from the ruinous principles of infidelity, and strive to counteract the influence of the ingenious infidel, by teaching them all to read, and then supplying them with good books; especially let us give them all the Bible, which will form a steadfast anchor for their souls. They are also in danger of being drawn aside by the pompous displays and numerous appliances of the Romish hierarchy; and when they acquire property, special and strong efforts may be made by an ingenious priesthood to proselyte them. Let them be educated and thoroughly instructed in God's revelation to man as found in the Bible, and they will be safe from this error.

Your Committee recommend the establishment of one literary institution of a high order in the west for the more effectual training of colored men for distinguished usefulness, but especially to prepare a sufficient number of teachers, male and female, to supply their schools with competent and well-trained instructors wherever colored teachers may be needed. There is a great lack of well-qualified ministers and teachers among the colored people; and we can think of no better plan than this to supply the lamentable deficiency. It is probable the number of colored people in our midst will greatly increase; hence the greater necessity of increasing the number of intelligent and pious ministers and teachers, to educate and train the race in a proper manner. Moreover, whenever they will cheerfully volunteer their services, not otherwise, we need many educated and holy men and women to send back to the father-land, to strengthen the young republic and co-operate with our successful mission conference in Liberia in Christianizing the heathen of that dark land, and in spreading abroad throughout that whole continent the principles of our holy Christianity, with all its lovely and happy fruits, among which we doubt not will be found civil and religious liberty.

Should the colored men of the United States and Canada, in favor of emigrating to another country, make a location in Central America or the West Indies, as intimated at a recent convention held in Cleveland, composed of about one hundred and forty delegates, there will be much necessity for learned men, including ministers of religion and professional teachers, to accompany the colonists to their new home, and aid in its improvement. This project, however, we think, can not succeed, as comparatively few will consent to emigrate to a Catholic country.

The culture and conversion of the African race can never be universally accomplished by the direct instrumentality of the white race. The colored man must, for the most part, be the minister, the educator, and leader of his own race. We would, therefore, recommend that we educate and thoroughly instruct the present generation, that they may be prepared to educate and Christianize all the generations to come.

Your Committee recommend the appointment of a General Agent. If a suitable minister can be procured, who shall have charge and special supervision of this work, we suggest:

1. That he make an effort to form an intimate acquaintance with all those ecclesiastical bodies and Churches in the west who have colored persons in their communion, seek opportunities to preach to them, and, in such form as his prudence may dictate, explain to their conferences, and, if it be thought proper, to their congregations, our design to elevate the colored race among us, by increasing their educational facilities, and laboring to advance their intellectual and moral improvement. He should consult with them in regard to the best plan of accomplishing this work, and ask their aid and influence to encourage and support him in his labor, or propose to assist them in theirs.

2. That he co-operate with the Government authorities in securing the erection of suitable school-houses, and in opening and sustaining good schools, under competent instructors, for the colored children.

3. To organize Sunday schools with the consent and aid of the people, and circulate tracts and useful books for their instruction and salvation.

4. That he lecture occasionally on appropriate and useful subjects, as well as preach the Gospel wherever he can procure a congregation, and endeavor to diffuse abroad among the colored people the spirit of enterprise, industry, frugality and economy. He should try to excite them to master the mechanic arts, to qualify themselves to manage the more lucrative branches of business, and fit up for themselves neat, convenient, and healthy dwellings.

5. That he visit other Churches as opportunity offers, and endeavor to elicit a sympathy and awaken an interest in behalf of the colored people, that they may be generally cared for, and that their moral culture, their religious instruction, as well as their intellectual improvement, may be accomplished.

We suggest, also, that he ascertain what may be considered the most favorable site or location for the contemplated literary institution, and what may be the prospect for raising funds to endow such an institution of learning.

With our report we submit to the conference the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it is of the greatest importance, both to the colored and white races in the free states, that all the colored people should receive at least a good common school education; and that for this purpose well-qualified teachers are indispensable.

2. Resolved, That the religious instruction of the colored people is necessary to their elevation as well as their salvation.

3. Resolved, That we recommend the establishment of a literary institution of a high order for the education of the colored people generally, and for the purpose of preparing teachers of all grades to labor in the work of educating the colored people in our country and elsewhere.

4. Resolved, That we recommend that an attempt be made, on the part of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to co-operate with the African Methodist Episcopal Church in promoting the intellectual and religious improvement of the colored people.

5. Resolved, That we recommend, as soon as practicable, the appointment of a General Agent, to carry out the objects proposed in the preceding resolutions, and to labor otherwise for the improvement of the people of color.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. F. WRIGHT, Chairman.

Brother Wright was appointed the General Agent in accordance with the fifth resolution above.

REPORT ON SLAVERY.

The committee appointed to consider the subject of slavery have performed the duty assigned them, and respectfully submit the following report:

In regard to slavery, as practiced in these United States, we can not better express our views, than in the language of the fathers at the conference of 1785. That language is as follows: "We do hold in the deepest abhorrence the practice of slavery; and shall not cease to seek its destruction by all wise and prudent means." And your Committee cannot but regard it as an enormous wrong, which of course Christianity is designed to destroy. The Church of Christ, we have no doubt, should take and maintain toward this practice a position of open and avowed hostility, and should boldly proclaim her determination to labor with untiring perseverance for its utter extirpation.

And this position has been taken by our Church. The end at which she aims is clearly stated; and now the inquiry is, "What shall be done" for the attainment of this end? It may just as well be understood by all whom it may concern, whether south or north, whether friend or foe, that whatever measures may be taken, or however those measures may be varied, this one object will be kept steadily in view, and that the Methodist Episcopal Church will never cease to seek the extirpation of this evil, till the last manacle is broken off and the last slave is free.

Up to this point there seems no room for difference among us. But when we proceed a step farther, and inquire how this object may be most certainly and speedily accomplished, there is ground for diversity of sentiment. And when we recollect that the wisest heads and purest hearts have been sorely puzzled by this inquiry, we feel that we should approach it with becoming modesty. At the Christmas conference, held in 1784, it seemed quite clear to our fathers of that period, that all slaveholders should be excluded from the Church; and a rule to that effect was accordingly enacted. Six months' observation and reflection, however, awakened doubts in their minds; and the rule was first suspended for a time, and finally abandoned. Whether they acted wisely or unwisely in this retrograde movement, let the past and future history of the Church determine.

For fifty years the standing inquiry of the Church has been, What shall be done? and practically the answer has been, Nothing. For it can not be denied, that instead of any thing toward the extirpation of this evil being effected by the Church, slavery has made large encroachments upon the Church and upon the country. At first it humbly asked for toleration, and this was granted. It then demanded the sanction of the Church, and has obtained it. Finally, it coveted more territory, and took possession of it. Last year we complained of a most iniquitous law, enacted for the purpose of compelling us to catch our brother as he fled from the oppressor, and send him back to his unrequited toil, to his worse than Egyptian bondage. This year another and a bolder step is taken; and vast regions of territory, heretofore considered sacred to liberty, have been thrown open to slavery.

And now the question again comes up, "What shall be done for the extirpation of the evil of slavery?"

Your Committee would respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we earnestly recommend our people to memorialize Congress, asking the repeal of the Fugitive-Slave law, and the re-enactment of so much of the late law known as the Missouri Compromise, as excluded slavery from Kansas and Nebraska and other territory of the United States.

2. Resolved, That persons holding slaves for gain, or for their own convenience in any way, or with the intention of perpetuating the bondage of the slave, should not be received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, nor suffered to continue therein.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON JOINT COMMITTEE OF FINANCE.

The committee appointed to consider the propriety of introducing a lay element into our deliberations on financial subjects, reports as follows:

Your Committee can see no well-grounded objection to the proposition. As a doctrine it does not clash the provisions of the Discipline as they now are; and as a plan of operation we think it simple and every way practicable. The proposition is not a novelty in Methodism. The measure has been adopted and acted upon by the Wesleyan connection in England for many years, and by some conferences in the United States. The result attained wherever the experiment has been tried, we believe has been invariably beneficial. And as our benevolent enterprises are numerous, and are rapidly multiplying on our hands, and as they all require material aid, which must be chiefly supplied by the laity, it is their due, and only respectful on our part, to invite them to participate. But the most influential consideration requiring the adoption of this measure is the improvement of our finances. To accomplish this object we think it vastly important to draw the membership into the closest possible union with the ministry, that their hearts may pulsate in unison with our own, and so to identify them with our benevolent operations that they will feel that these enterprises are the enterprises of the people.

Your Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

1. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of a financial committee by the conference, at its present session, consisting of as many members as there are districts within our bounds, to confer with an equal number of laymen.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the district stewards to appoint one steward from each district to attend the session of our conference, to confer with the members of the financial committee appointed by the conference at its preceding session.

3. Resolved, That these lay stewards shall have equal privileges with the ministers in the deliberations of the committee, and that we will cordially invite them to participate in all the discussions in the conference on financial subjects.

4. Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the presiding elders to bring this subject before their quarterly conference and the district stewards' meeting, and carry the plan into practical execution.

REPORT OF THE TRACT AGENT.

It is, doubtless, expected that we report to the conference our operations in the tract cause the past year. At the close of the North Ohio conference, a year ago, the idea of this agency had not once entered our mind; and when suggested by others was not seriously entertained till recommended by the Ohio and Cincinnati conferences. As it required the concurrence of those conferences with the action of ours in the appointment of a joint agency, and as it was several weeks after the close of the North Ohio conference before they met and acted in the case, it was nearly the middle of October before we received the appointment.

We had, then, before the work could be entered upon, to call separate meetings of the board of managers of the several conferences included in the agency, to receive instructions and the plan of operations.

These arrangements, with other contingencies, necessarily consumed considerable time, so that it was December before we could enter regularly upon the work. True, during the interval we visited a number of points, and did some little for the advancement of the cause. Having made the necessary arrangements, we commenced the work according to the direction of the Boards of Managers, intending to devote our entire time and best efforts to the cause.

For several months we prosecuted the labor with as much success as could reasonably be expected under the circumstances. But early in March we were attacked with inflammation of the lungs, and an affection of the throat and head, by which we were prostrated and rendered unable to pursue the work for nearly six weeks. This affliction deranged all our plans of operation. Being deeply anxious, however, as we have always been, to do, to the best of our ability, the work assigned us by the Church, we resumed the labor with health but partially restored, and dragged on, in the best way we could, till about the middle of July, when we were attacked with chills and fever, and have been able to do but very little business of any kind since.

We entered upon this agency with no very sanguine hopes of immediate success, but with a sincere desire to become practically acquainted, as far as possible, with the operations of our new tract enterprise, and to increase and extend the usefulness and power of the Methodist press. It was soon found, however, as we had anticipated, that the field was entirely too large for one man. If he should attempt to pass over the whole ground, it must be done so hastily as scarcely to make an impression any where; and if he should confine himself chiefly to any particular portion, he would give occasion of complaints from other parts of the work. Another and very great drawback was, that, in the judgment of the friends of the cause generally, the mere circulation of tracts, however important that may be in itself, does not fully meet the expectations of the Church, or the wants of the people. The general impression is, that the new tract organization would provide a regular and efficient system for the more general and extensive circulation of the literature of our Church, by colporteurs or district agents; but as the traveling preachers are the principal agents for the sale of our books, and as the conferences had not authorized any change, we did not feel at liberty to employ any other agencies, except at a few points where the preachers desired it; consequently, the best we could do in meeting this difficulty, was to inform the people what we hoped to do in the future; namely, to include in our operations the general circulation of all the publications of our Church.

The evident effect, however, of this state of the case was, and still is, to induce the people to suspend any very efficient effort for the tract cause merely, till our plans are completed, and our operations embrace the whole work as contemplated above.

Whether these expectations shall in any degree be met, or any change in the mode of circulating our books be made, depends on the action of the conference. And we will not conceal our convictions, that unless the conference authorizes and adopts measures to establish a regular system throughout its bounds for the circulation of our books, according to public expectation, the tract cause, for the mere circulation of tracts proper, will not be sustained to the extent anticipated by most of its friends. To establish such a system, it will be necessary for the conference not only officially to authorize a system of colportage within its bounds, but also to appoint an agent for this conference alone, who shall, with the counsel and direction of the Board of Managers, have the supervision of the whole work, and through whom the district agents shall transact all their business with the Book Concern. And to avoid embarrassment and secure success, there should be a permanent fund raised, by which the conference agent can furnish all his colporteurs with books at cash rates, and without any risk to the Book Concern; the proceeds of the sales replenishing and perpetuating this fund.

Such a system, if there should be no more books sold under it than on the present plan, would have the advantage of extending the circulation of our religious literature among thousands of families who have never been reached but to a very limited extent, if at all, by the publications of our Church.

Should the conference adopt some such plan as here suggested, we have no doubt the agent, with the co-operation of the preachers, could raise the funds, including the profits on the sale of books, necessary to sustain a colporteur in each presiding elder's district in the conference—and more should the work require it—without diminishing the amount that would ordinarily be contributed for the tract cause.

There are many who would give from five to one hundred dollars to sustain a system of this kind, who will give but little or nothing for the tract cause merely. But we did not intend to discuss the subject in this report, and possibly these remarks may be considered out of place. In conclusion, without going into particulars, we will only say, that we have labored the past year, in this agency, to the full extent of our health and strength, and we feel now, that in not a few instances, even beyond what prudence would have dictated. And, although the results may fall far below the expectations of those who have not given careful attention to the subject, we will greatly rejoice in the success of any one who will do more under the same circumstances.

REPORT ON THE TRACT CAUSE.

The Committee on the Tract Cause beg leave to call the attention of the conference to the important work of extending religious knowledge, as it is contemplated in the existence, design, and operations of our Tract Society. The day has come when every possible effort should be made to carry religious publications to every habitation, and to place them in the possession of each and every individual. Large portions of our towns and cities, together with extensive sections of the country, may be regarded as being too much neglected, and are almost without religious publications. Such publications are almost indispensable in arousing the energies of the soul, and in exciting the mind to vigorous and healthy action. It is impossible to place too high an estimate upon that which tends to the true elevation of the mind, enkindling holy aspirations for happiness on earth and for the bliss and joys of eternal life. We desire to express, in part, the solicitude and sincerity of our feelings by invoking, as far as possible, that kind of conference action the result of which will be neither contingent or remote, but energetic, immediate and effectual.

1. Resolved, That the Bishop be, and is hereby requested to appoint a competent man to act as agent for the tract cause within our bounds.

2. Resolved, That in relation to this subject, this conference be regarded as a tract association, with power to order, advise, and aid in any arrangements extending or conveying our tract publications to all the people within our bounds.

3. Resolved, That the Tract Agent for this conference, together with all subordinate officers, have the privilege to circulate among the people within their respective fields of labor.

4. Resolved, That as members of this conference, and friends of the common cause of education and religion, we will cheerfully co-operate with and aid, as far as practicable, those who may be employed in this work.

5. Resolved, That annual collections shall be taken up in each society to aid in carrying out the interests and operations of the tract cause, and that the presiding elders of the several districts be requested to call the attention of each quarterly conference to this subject.

REPORT ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

The Committee on the Sabbath School Cause present the following report:

We are as much as ever convinced of the importance of the Sabbath school enterprise; and see growing inducements to patient, persevering effort in this department. As our fields of labor become circumscribed and our opportunities for aggressive movements lessened, we feel the importance, nay, the necessity, of cultivating well every part of the field already under our care. In communities where preaching has long been established, the chief source of increase in the Church must be found in the children of our families.

Again: in destitute neighborhoods the seeds of truth may be sown in young hearts in the Sabbath school, at an expense of labor and means probably much smaller, in proportion to results, than through any other mode of Christian effort. And while we encourage earnest effort to aggregate to our communion largely from the world, we would urge upon our ministry, and parents, and members of the Church, that they remember the statutes of the Lord, and the doctrines and usages of the Church of their choice, and teach them diligently unto their children as God commanded Israel: "And these words which I command thee this day shall be in thine heart; and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up."

The statistics show, in some departments, a growing interest in the enterprise. The number of conversions reported show, conclusively, that God has set his seal of approbation upon the efforts of our Sabbath School Union. In many of the new schools, as well as the old, the Church has been reaping a harvest of young hearts converted to God, which is full of promise to the cause of Him who says to us, "Feed my lambs."

Yet there is much to be done. In many places such is the indifference of our members, that Sabbath schools, if organized at all, are only organized to languish and die for the want of competent, pious, faithful teachers; and that, too, where talent and piety are rusting in the Church for want of activity. Many of our schools are suspended half the year, and that, too, during the winter months, when the day schools are most flourishing. This difficulty in some localities, perhaps, cannot be avoided; but in many places it can and ought. We respectfully urge the conference and laity to discountenance this practice, and to endeavor to continue our Sabbath schools through summer and winter.

The plan of having some definite object of benevolence before the school, wherever tried, has worked admirably. In this work a double benefit is realized: first, the contribution secured; and, second, the far greater one of training the children to habits of benevolence.

As the permanence and success of our Sabbath school enterprise is so inwoven with the objects of our Sabbath School Union, we urge the importance of furnishing material aid, by collections, on all our charges. A small sum from each, to aid in forming new and sustaining feeble schools, will add greatly to its efficiency. As shown by the circular, our own conference has received, in grants from the treasury of the Union, but about one-sixth of the amount contributed; but many places in the newer conferences have been opportunely assisted. Many portions of our work very much need the aid which the Union, if properly sustained, will be able to furnish; and our efforts should be cheerfully put forth to accomplish this result.

We offer, for the adoption of the conference, the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we realize the growing importance of the Sabbath school enterprise; and that increased exertions are called for on the part of the ministry and membership of our Church.

2. Resolved, That we earnestly recommend that schools be organized in every neighborhood in our bounds, and that we discountenance the practice of discontinuing the Sabbath school during the winter months.

3. Resolved, That we recommend that some benevolent object be constantly kept before each school for its contribution.

4. Resolved, That collections be taken up in all our charges for the Sabbath School Union.

Respectfully submitted.

We submit the following report:

This institution is in a highly-prosperous condition. Its halls are crowded with students, and the most sanguine expectations of its friends are already more than realized. The examinations during the year have been highly creditable to the Faculty and the students. The institution is free from debt, as the financial exhibit will show—which we submit as a part of our report. Therefore,

1. Resolved, That we have increasing confidence in the ability and fidelity of the Faculty, and we most cordially recommend the University as eminently worthy of the confidence and patronage of the Church and public.

2. Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of W. P. Strickland, William Nast, and Moses Smith as a Committee of Examination and a Visiting Committee to the University for the ensuing year.

A vacancy having occurred in the Board of Trustees, by the resignation of Hon. Thomas Brown, of Dayton, Ohio, therefore,

3. Resolved, That we recommend to the conference the election of Archibald Liggett, Esq., of Ripley, Brown county, Ohio, to fill said vacancy.

4. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to re-appoint L. D. M'Cabe as Professor in the Ohio Wesleyan University.

1. Resolved, That we tender to the Ohio University our warmest sympathies and most earnest prayers for its extension and prosperity.

OAKLAND FEMALE SEMINARY.

This institution is in a prosperous condition, and is gradually rising in the confidence and affection of the community. Its greatest obstacle is its want of suitable accommodations. Many applicants, on this account, are compelled to resort to other institutions. There is now an encouraging prospect that ample accommodations will be provided. It is proposed to merge the Oakland Female Seminary into a female college of the first order, which will be under the control and supervision of the Cincinnati conference.

We recommend to the conference the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to re-appoint the Rev. Joseph M'D. Mathews as Principal of the Oakland Female Seminary.

2. Resolved, That the presiding elder of Hillsboro district, the preacher in charge of Hillsboro station, and the preachers on Highland circuit be a Visiting Committee to the Seminary.

3. Resolved, That the proposition submitted by the Board of Trustees, of the contemplated female college in Hillsboro, Ohio, is hereby accepted: Provided, no pecuniary responsibility be assumed by this conference.

4. Resolved, That we recommend the election of James H. Thompson, John Basken, Jonas R. Emrie, Alexander Buntain, William I. Fee, William H. Trimble, Jacob Saylor, and David Fenwick, as Trustees of the female college at Hillsboro.

5. Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. A. M. Lorrain, an efficient Agent for said institution.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PROPOSITION OF THE TRUSTEES OF HILLSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Oakland Female Seminary, at Hillsboro, Ohio, has been in operation about fifteen years. As it is the enterprise of an individual, it is probable that at his death the institution would be broken up. To prevent such a result, Bishops Simpson and Janes last fall at conference, at Hillsboro, advised that the Church should take hold of it, erect commodious buildings, and render the institution permanent. A new church had just been erected, which cost about eight thousand dollars, and it was feared that a subscription sufficiently large for the erection of a female college could not be immediately procured. The quarterly meeting conference, however, took hold of the matter in April last, and appointed a Board of Trustees. They have procured a subscription of about five thousand dollars in Hillsboro, and about a thousand dollars elsewhere. It is believed that the subscription in Hillsboro can be raised to eight thousand dollars, or more.

It has been the intention, from the beginning, to place the institution under the patronage and control of the Cincinnati conference, and to request them to appoint an agent to procure funds. The Trustees propose to the conference, that they—the conference—shall elect eight trustees, and their successors, and that the stockholders shall elect seven, giving the conference the balance of power. The plan the Trustees propose for the collection of funds, is, to allow every subscriber of one share of stock, or more, ten per cent. interest on such subscriptions when paid, which interest shall be payable in tuition forever. Twenty-five dollars will be one share of stock, and the price of tuition is not to be more than twenty-five dollars a year. At this rate a subscription of two hundred and fifty dollars would keep one pupil in the institution forever, free of tuition. But it is presumed that, if they succeed in getting the institution well endowed, the price of tuition will be much reduced and the same subscription would pay for more scholarships. The Trustees propose to raise fifty thousand dollars, and to expend twenty or twenty-five thousand in buildings, apparatus, etc., and to place the balance at interest for endowment. They desire to establish a first-rate female college.

They desire, for an agent, one of the best and most efficient men in the conference, and they pledge for him a liberal support. The work is important, not only to procure money for this institution, but to lead the membership of the Church to the exercise of benevolence on principle. Many have given liberally to Delaware and other institutions; but there is much wealth in the Church yet unappropriated, and an institution of this kind is needed in southern Ohio.

The stock in this institution may descend to the heirs of the contributors, but cannot be sold, and the interest is payable only in tuition.

The present Trustees are James H. Thompson, John Basken, David Fenwick, Alexander Buntain, Jonas R. Emrie, William I. Fee, William H. Trimble, Jacob Saylor, James T. Ayres, John M. Boyd, John Dill, Andrew M'Micken, Joseph I. Woodrow, William O. Collins, Henry Mulanix.

XENIA FEMALE ACADEMY.

From the report of the Visiting Committee of the Xenia Female Academy, your Committee are gratified to learn, that that institution is in a high state of prosperity, and bids fair to take its position among the very first female seminaries of our country.

At the close of the Academic Year, in June last, Rev. Asbury Lowrey resigned his place as Principal of the Academy, and was succeeded by Rev. Mansfield French, of the North Ohio conference.

The first term under the new Principal has just opened with encouraging prospects. Rev. Mr. French is an educator of many years' experience, is well qualified for his present position, and will doubtless be eminently successful.

The following resolutions are submitted:

1. Resolved, That the Xenia Female Academy deserves the fostering care and patronage of the Church and the friends of Christian education every-where.

2. Resolved, That the presiding elder of Xenia district and the preacher in charge of Xenia station be the Visitors for that institution the ensuing year.

THE FEMALE COLLEGE AND SPRINGFIELD HIGH SCHOOL.

From the report of the Visiting Committee and a communication from the Trustees, your Committee are pleased to learn, that this institution continues to maintain a high position among the literary institutions of the western country. It is the oldest of the institutions now under the care and patronage of the Cincinnati conference, and has special claims upon the Church within our bounds. A new, beautiful, and commodious college building has been erected during the past year, and is now ready for occupancy. It is in the finest style of architecture, is an ornament to the city, and a credit to the Church under whose auspices it has been erected.

The institution was never more prosperous than at the present time. Two hundred and twenty-seven pupils, male and female, have been in attendance during the past year, and there is good reason to expect a still greater number the ensuing year. The friends of a sound and Christian education can not do better than to patronize the Female College and Springfield High School.

The following resolutions are submitted:

1. Resolved, That we request the Bishop to reappoint Rev. J. W. Weakley as President of this institution.

2. Resolved, That the presiding elder of the Urbana district and the preachers stationed in Springfield, be the Visitors for the ensuing year.

The Trustees having asked for the appointment of Rev. Alexander Meharry as Agent for this institution, therefore,

3. Resolved, That we earnestly request the Bishop to appoint him to said agency.

4. Resolved, That we approve the election of the following-named persons as Trustees; namely, Rev. Robert Cheney, Marcus Stevens, Ephraim Byers, David Hayward, Enoch G. Dial, Wm. Whitely, Rev. J. W. Weakley, John G. Miller, and Nathaniel Mitchell.

REPORT ON MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Your Committee on Ministerial Support beg leave to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, The expenses of living have within the last year greatly increased; and,

WHEREAS, The salaries of preachers are not adequate to meet these expenses; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we most respectfully request the committees that may be appointed on the different districts, circuits, and stations, to take into consideration this state of things, and make their allowances accordingly.

2. Resolved, That the presiding elders of each district be and are hereby respectfully requested to read this preamble and resolutions, at the district meetings of stewards, and also at the first quarterly meetings on the circuits and stations.

REPORT ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee beg leave to present the following report:

A cause so well known and world-wide in its fame and in its benevolent objects as the American Bible Society, needs no lengthened arguments in its behalf. It is enough to say that the American Bible Society is pursuing the even tenor of its way in printing, publishing, and circulating the Bible in our own and foreign languages, and laboring hard to keep up a supply for all demands. In this great work we are sure it has the sympathies and co-operation of the Church and all the friends of civil and religious freedom in our land. While Romanism, with its Vandal hand, would destroy this great charter of human rights, and bury God's word in a dead language, the American Bible Society is placing a copy in the hands of every man, and that in his vernacular tongue; so that the Chinaman, and East Indian, and Polynesian, and African,

European, and American may read the wonderful works of God in their own tongue, in which they were born.

The General Agent of the Bible Society, Rev. Mr. Galloway, desires to present, through your Committee, his grateful acknowledgments for the very liberal manner in which he has been received by the ministers, and recommended to the members, in the prosecution of his work, and the hearty co-operation of ministers and people in furthering the objects of the American Bible Society.

By reference to the financial department of our reports, as furnished for the ministers, it will be seen that the past year has been one of prosperity to the Bible cause, and our contributions, as reported, will show an increase of thirty-three and a third per cent. on the previous year.

In conclusion, we beg leave to present the following:

Resolved, That we will, as a conference, continue to extend to the American Bible Society our hearty support, and co-operate with the General Agent whenever he shall visit our field of labor.

REPORT ON BETHEL CAUSE.

We still believe in the vast importance of Bethel operations, and that the purity of our shores demands that the great torrent of depravity that is pouring through our commercial channels should be arrested. We believe, moreover, that the Western Seamen's Friend Society has accomplished much good in many portions of the field over which it has taken supervision. In the last year several of the stations have had precious seasons of refreshing, and in all some good has been accomplished. As the agents of the Society have annually solicited our views in regard to the enterprise, and as we have, from time to time, given them, according to the light which we have had, we would humbly suggest to the Society that we believe that the managers might greatly amplify the success of the institution, by appointing subordinate boards, or committees of a local character, to control the affairs of those Bethels which are situated in our large commercial towns. The circumstance of their having been directed, as they have been, by a foreign and distant management, has a tendency to impoverish the interest of the Churches in the enterprise.

We have, for some time, felt the necessity of having some common form of worship and some liberal bond of communion under which we might form ecclesiastical or religious associations, so that our scattered sheaves might be gathered and bound together in the spirit of union and bonds of love. We are happy in hearing, from the Financial Secretary, that such a plan of Church communion has been adopted, and is operating successfully. That plan allows every minister employed to use the ordinary and prudential means of grace and form of worship to which he has been accustomed. As a conference, we feel as ever bound to sustain the Bethel work, and pray for its success and perpetuity.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The committee to whom the subject of temperance was referred beg leave to report the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, Intemperance in its various forms, and especially in the use of intoxicating drinks, is at variance not only with our holy Christianity, but with the best interests of man; and,

WHEREAS, It is our duty, both as Christians and philanthropists, to use all lawful means for its extirpation; and,

WHEREAS, Observation and experience demonstrate that moral suasion is not sufficient to accomplish this end; and,

WHEREAS, Our excellent Discipline forbids the buying, selling, or using intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and, by just implication, discountenances the furnishing of materials for use and the manufacturing of these drinks; therefore,

1. Resolved, That we will continue prudently, but firmly, to execute our rules against the traffic in and the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

2. Resolved, That the practice, on the part of our members, of selling grain for the purpose of distillation, and the furnishing of materials for carrying on the business, is reprehensible, inasmuch as it is inseparably connected with the iniquity of the traffic; and they are hereby affectionately urged to desist from the practice.

3. Resolved, That, in view of the beneficial results arising from the enactment of prohibitory laws in other states, that we will lend our aid and influence, in all commendable ways, to secure one adapted to our state.

4. Resolved, That, in order to advance the great temperance movement, every minister be requested to preach or lecture on the subject of temperance as often as circumstances may justify.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT ON THE SANCTIFICATION OF THE SABBATH.

The Committee on the Sanctification of the Sabbath present the following report:

One of the most alarming evils of the present time is the shocking desecration of the Sabbath. In thought, conversation, and conduct, it is profaned—by the loading and unloading of steam-boats, canal-boats, rail-cars, stage-coaches, and wagons, and traveling in them, coming and going with the same uniformity, as if God had sanctified no part of time to himself—the arrivals and departures of all kinds of traveling vehicles, containing parties riding for business or pleasure, the bustle and hurry of attendants nearly destroying the sacred stillness of the Sabbath, each laboring and pursuing their pleasure with as much assiduity as if God had not required them to rest. Christians who are jealous for the honor of God must see to it that they are free from all participation in this guilt. If God has absolutely forbidden attention to any worldly avocation on that day; if he has forbidden all labor, either of man or beast, no excuse can justify the breach of the express command of God. No one can be blameless who neglects to hallow this day which God has sanctified, and the observance of which he has so repeatedly and minutely enjoined. The day which we feel to be one of the choicest boons of heaven to man—no language can exaggerate the guilt of those who, by their example and influence, lead others to disregard this day. Your Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That such is the vital importance of the Sabbath, and such its influence upon all the great interests of men, that its due observance ought to receive the earnest attention, the fervent prayers, and the hearty, active, and persevering co-operation of all the friends of God and man throughout the world.

2. Resolved, That all the members of this conference be most affectionately and earnestly requested to preach frequently in their congregations on the sanctification of the Sabbath, and to urge its importance in families while attending to their pastoral work.

Respectfully submitted.

CINCINNATI CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

At the appointed time the President, Rev. James B. Finley, took the chair, and requested brother C. W. Swain to open the meeting by singing and prayer.

The roll was then called, and the members paid their annual subscription of one dollar. For the amount, see Treasurer's Report.

The Society then went into an election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

Rev. Jas. B. Finley, President.

Rev. G. C. Crum, Vice President.

Rev. Wm. Young, Treasurer.

Rev. Jno. W. Fowble, Secretary.

Revs. C. Ferguson, D. Reed, W. Webster, M. Dustin, W. I. Fee, W. S. Morrow, W. Nast, Managers.

The Treasurer then made an explanatory statement respecting some property bequeathed to the Society, for the information of the members.

On motion of brother Mathews, it was Resolved, That no further effort to raise funds be made at the anniversary meeting, on Monday evening next, except a basket collection.

The President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary were appointed a committee to draft a constitution, to be submitted to the Society at its next annual meeting.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

JAS. B. FINLEY, President.

JNO. W. FOWBLE, Secretary.

The annual missionary sermon, before the Cincinnati conference, was preached on Saturday, September 30th, at 8 o'clock, P. M., by Rev. Wm. H. Sutherland, from Acts xvi, 9: "Come over into Macedonia and help us."

The sermon was a clear, original, and eloquent discussion of the moral obligations resting on the Church to give the Gospel to the whole world.

The anniversary of the Society was held on Monday evening, October 2d, in Wesley Chapel. The attendance was large, and the exercises deeply interesting.

The opening religious exercises were conducted by Rev. Dr. Clark, after which the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer were read and adopted.

Thrilling addresses were then made by Rev. Jesse T. Peck and Dr. Durbin, of New York.

The basket collection was then taken up, after which the meeting was dismissed with the benediction.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We meet this evening to celebrate the third anniversary of the Cincinnati Conference Missionary Society. Devout thanksgiving is due to our heavenly Father for his gracious favor toward this Society during the year. But one of our number from the ministry has fallen by death—the meek, sensible, pious Meredith. He fell at his post, ceasing at once his life and his work.

The blessing of God has so attended and crowned the labors of the past year, as to enable this Society, through its Treasurer, to present, this night, an aggregate of collections largely in advance of former years. The increase over last year is about 20 per cent.

The introduction of the Disciplinary Plan, adopted at the last General conference, into many of the charges, has, doubtless, contributed much toward this desirable result. An increase, secured by such means, promises to be permanent, because it is the result of a well-arranged system, having at its center the principle, that the missionary cause is of God and belongs to the whole membership of the Church.

Although the funds of this Society show an increase over other years, it has not yet reached the limits of its obligation. So wide and various are the doors opening into destitute and heathen lands, and so loud and imperative the calls of suffering, enslaved, perishing man, that no former standard of liberality will meet the present and prospective responsibilities of the Church of Christ.

"The world is my parish," was the favorite sentiment of the immortal Wesley—a sentiment worthy of the heart and the theology of the founder of our Church. To reach this consummation, and thus fulfill the commission of Wesley's Master, is the object of this and kindred associations. A Gospel, equal to the wants of the whole world, must be preached in all the world. The whitened harvest field of immortal souls is not yet reaped. Prayer should ceaselessly go up to the great Lord of the harvest, both for means and men, as well as for the ultimate results of success.

The accumulation of wealth, in Christian families and nations, suggests at once the privilege and peril of the Church of Christ. The silver and the gold are the Lord's. They have been largely transferred to Christian countries, and thereby made subject to Christian control. If these accumulating treasures shall be devoted to Christ, and not to self; if they shall be employed in schemes of pure Christian philanthropy, and not to purposes of luxury, pride, and self-gratification, then, indeed, will it not have been in vain that God has bestowed upon the professing world an overflowing substance with which to honor him.

Let us hope that in this great work the missionary Church, and especially the Cincinnati conference, will be found fully meeting the utmost measure of their obligations to God and the world.

JOHN W. FOWBLE, Secretary.

Cincinnati, October 2, 1854.

DETAILED MISSIONARY REPORT.

The following items of the missionary report in detail are all that have come into the hands of the Secretary. Some reports were handed in at different times, and in different sheets. The returns from some of the preachers are, indeed, models worthy of imitation. We could not transcribe these reports. Inaccuracies will doubtless be found; but the report is as perfect as the materials would warrant. Some of the reports were without name, date, or place. Not being able to tell whence they came, we have not published them. Yet we hope the present report will be found much more ample and satisfactory than that of last year. We are doing well. Let us not become weary in well doing.
